

Edgefield Advertiser.

Please Pay at Once.

Have you yet heeded our appeal to come forward and pay your subscription? A good many have paid. Look at the label on your paper, and if you still owe, please come forward at once. We have carried a large number of subscribers through the period of financial depression and must now urge them to pay. Will you not heed our very reasonable request?

Returned From Market.

After spending several weeks in New York making large purchases for his Greenwood stores and for the Corner Store, Mr. Turner returned last week. He is an experienced buyer, not only in knowing what to buy but where to buy to the best advantage. The new goods are already arriving at the Corner Store. Watch for the announcement in The Advertiser when everything is on display.

A Goodly Sum Realized.

The Valentine party which was given in the opera house Friday night by the Methodist ladies was a distinct success, financially and socially. The program by the children was a pleasing feature. The sum of $63 net was realized by the ladies and considerably more could have been added to their treasury, had not the supply of refreshments become exhausted before the demand was supplied.

An Agent Wanted.

Attention is directed to the large advertisement of Messrs. Grant and Yonce on our eighth page in which they make a detailed statement concerning the merits of the New Grant Six automobiles, for which they are agents. These cars have stood the test and have proven over and over again that they are designed by the most skillful mechanics and constructed of the best material. Should you contemplate purchasing a car write or phone Messrs. Grant and Yonce at Johnston and they will have their demonstrator, Mr. J. P. Bland, call upon you. The price of the Grant is reasonable, being within reach of every person who is able to own a good car.

Good Work on Plank Road.

Several reports have reached us of the good work that Supervisor Edmunds is doing in laying the heavy sand beds on the old Plank road below Trenton. If the county puts this road in first-class condition, it seems that the citizens, especially the automobile owners, should devise some way of keeping the bad places repaired. It is impossible for the county's road working force to cover the roads of the county more than once in 15 or 18 months, and in that time the best of our roads need much repair work. The automobile owners who use the road to Augusta frequently should devise some way of keeping the road in good order after Mr. Edmunds does the heavy work.

Celebrated Civic Worker Coming.

Having been engaged by the State Federation of clubs to make a tour of the state in the interest of Civics, Miss Van Buren, a celebrated civic worker, will come to Edgefield early next week, and while among us she will deliver five lectures. To the children of the third and higher grades she will speak on "A boy I knew and his town." To the high school pupils she will speak on "Practical citizenship" and she will address the teachers on the "Teaching of Civics." The members of the Civic League will hear Miss Van Buren on "Practical civics for practical women." A meeting will be held for the public at large and on that occasion the specialist will deliver a lecture on "Your town and its improvements." In order to raise sufficient funds with which to pay the expenses of Miss Van Buren an admission fee of 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children will be charged for the lecture to the public. The exact date of Miss Van Buren's coming will be made known later.

Death of a Confederate Veteran.

The death of Mr. John Galloway last Wednesday afternoon marks the passing of another gallant veteran. Mr. Galloway was in his 72nd year. While he has been gradually yielding to the weight of increasing years for some time, yet until quite recently his health was good. Mr. Galloway was a good citizen, a man of sterling qualities and always managed his business and farming operations with more than usual success. He was a member of Rocky Creek church but the interment took place in the cemetery adjoining Philippi church, where some of his relatives were buried. The funeral was conducted by Rev. H. B. White, the pastor of Rocky Creek church. The Edgefield friends of Mr. Galloway will miss his visits to our town.

Mr. Galloway is survived by his wife and four daughters. Mrs. J. C. Harris who resided in our town several years was his daughter.

D. A. R. Meeting.

The Edgefield D. A. R., celebrated the second anniversary of its existence at the home of Mrs. J. H. Cantelou where occurred two years ago the organization through the state regent, Mrs. Louise Mayes. A paper on the chapter's birthday written by Mrs. J. W. Peak gave interesting facts of its development and growth attributing much of the success to its faithful founder and regent, Mrs. Agatha Woodson. Mrs. Maner Lawton prepared a sketch of her revolutionary ancestor, Nathaniel Abney which was full of valuable information not only of the family but of the times and conditions in which he lived. Mrs. J. R. Tompkins sang with unusual sweetness Tostis' Serenade. Mrs. Tillman talked on music of Washington's times when the minuet was played on the harpichord and Washington and his friends joined in the stately dance and when at the same time across the water Bach, Handel and Mozart were startling the world with their wonderful oratorios and musical compositions.

Catechee, the swift-footed Indian maiden who traveled ninety-six miles to warn her white sweethearts of threatened Indian raids on the town now called Ninety Six, was beautifully described in a sketch read by Mrs. James Cantelou.

There was a short business session and payment of annual dues. Resolutions on the death of Mrs. J. H. Allen the beloved registrar of the chapter were read and adopted each member related some incident in the life of George Washington whose birthday is co-incidental with that of the chapter.

A delicious salad course with coffee and whipped cream was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. L. T. May.

Customer—Only one please my wife is a busy woman and I want to save her time when she goes through them.—Buffalo Courier.

The Sunday school teacher asked several questions about the cities of the Bible.

"What happened to Babylon?" was the point question.

"It fell," replied one boy.

"And what became of Nineveh?"

"It was destroyed."

"And what of Tyre?"

"Punctured!"—Selected.

"John Barleycorn's Christmas."

Under this caption the Temperance Society of the Methodist Episcopal church recently gives a survey of the results of liquor drinking during holiday week, as obtained from the public press and from the reports of about 17,000 Methodist pastors. Of course, the purpose was to show how "booze"—far from increasing the happiness of the world, as its defenders claim, turns mirth into mourning, misery and death. In this unique record no effort was made to keep account of those arrested merely for drunkenness, estimated at 5,000 on New Year's Eve alone, the Denver police declaring that they "only arrested those (54 men) who were so drunk that they could not navigate," nor those whose crimes—window breaking, and the like might be termed "inconsequential."

But the week's records includes:

Murderers (3 children)	77
Suicides	18
Wounded	155
Dead by accident or exposure	31
Wounded by accident	19
Child victim of drink	18
Miscellaneous cases.	388

Gave Me Three Months TO Live

SAYS COLUMBIAN.

Miss Garrick Was Told Her Case Was Hopeless.

"You have about three months to live," Miss Effie Garrick, of 1110 Huger street, Columbia, was told after she had undergone an operation for stomach trouble, more than a year ago. Miss Garrick said "I did not die, but I did continue to feel terrible until I recently found a means of combatting my troubles."

Miss Garrick says she believes she has at last found a means of restoring her health, which, all too soon for her years, has threatened during the past years to break down completely. She was a sufferer for a long time with stomach troubles, and other kindred ailments, which reduced her health to a state which made her almost wretched all the time, she said. Tanlac, the master medicine, Miss Garrick believes, will prove its superior worth in her case, as it has in hundreds of other cases in South Carolina. Her statement follows:

"I have suffered for ten years with stomach troubles, indigestion, nervousness, sleeplessness and headaches. My system all the time has been in a very much run down condition. More than a year ago I became so ill I felt that I would die. After I had undergone an operation, I was told I could hardly live more than three months."

"Of course, I did not die, but I did continue to feel terribly. Nothing seemed to relieve my troubles. I took many kinds of medicines, but to no avail. I would have headaches frequently, and they were so painful I thought surely I would go crazy, so nervous would I become. While I had headache, I would be forced to stay in bed. I would suffer with a full, heavy feeling about my stomach after eating, and I was forced to eat only a light diet. My condition has been steadily growing worse during the past ten years."

"I decided to try Tanlac, as a sort of forlorn hope, as I had read so much about its wonderful effects. The first bottle relieved my stomach trouble to an extent that I consider remarkable. I began to sleep well, and my appetite became so enormous, so much did it improve. I would have to get something to eat. My system responded immediately to Tanlac and built up rapidly."

"Tanlac is a great medicine, and I am always glad to recommend it. It is due many good words, for it is so valuable a remedy."

Tanlac, the master medicine, is sold exclusively by Penn & Holstein, Edgefield; Johnston Drug Co., Johnston; G. W. Wise, Trenton. Price $1.00 per bottle straight.

WAR UPON PAIN!

Pain is a visitor to every home and usually it comes quite unexpectedly. But you are prepared for every emergency if you keep a small bottle of Sloan's Liniment handy. It is the greatest pain killer ever discovered. Simply laid on the skin—no rubbing required—it drives the pain away. It is really wonderful. Melvin H. Soister, Berkeley Cal. writes: "Last Saturday, after tramping around the Panama Exposition with wet feet, I came home with my neck so stiff that I couldn't turn. I applied Sloan's Liniment freely and went to bed. To my surprise, next morning the stiffness had almost disappeared, four hours after the second application I was as good as new." all 25c druggists.—1
